- WHAT: Harvest Farm is a rural rehabilitation facility for men. The Farm supports crop and livestock operations, intern programs, a youth camp, and a Fall Festival and corn maze.
- WHERE: 4240 East County Road 66, Wellington, CO 80549 | HarvestFarm.net
Phone: 970.568.9803 | Fax: 970.568.7048
- WHO SERVED/
CAPACITY: Men, 18 and older, desiring to overcome addictions and destructive habits. The farm's current capacity is 72 participants.
- FACILITY: Harvest Farm sits on approximately 100 rural acres. The facilities include housing for program participants and interns; a LifeSkills, Education & Career center; maintenance and auto shops; a garden; a softball field; and a campground, log cabin, and shower facilities for youth groups.
- HISTORY: The Mission acquired the former Mercy Farm from Christian Missionary Fellowship in 1989.
- PROGRAM: The New Life Program is a comprehensive rehabilitation program designed to help men achieve lifelong self-sufficiency and become productive community members by learning to overcome destructive habits, maintaining healthy community, obtaining full-time employment, and providing for their own sustainable housing.
- YOUTH SERVANT: Provides youth groups with unique multi-day mission experiences. Youth groups stay in the cabin or in tents at the camp ground, and share meals, devotions, work, and fun with staff and program participants.
- FARMING/
RANCHING: Harvest Farm produces a wide range of crops. Livestock include beef cattle, dairy cattle, hogs, goats, sheep, and chickens. The food is used to feed the men in the program.
